June 18th, July 16th,
August 20th, September 17th,
October 15th, November 19th,
December 17th

Time: 3:30 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Where: Tony E. Warren Cancer Center
255 W. 5th St, Rome, GA 30165
(2nd Floor Conference Room)

For Cancer Patients and Survivors. Co-hosted By Cancer Navigators & Atrium Health Floyd Arts In Medicine.

The purpose of this program is to inspire the creativity and expression of participants through the arts, and to improve well-being and bring positive social interaction to cancer patients sharing their journey. Participants can lower stress levels, relieve anxiety, improve moods, strengthen relationships, and feel a sense of accomplishment when they learn to express themselves through art. *Registration is free, and we have 12 spots available each month for patients or survivors who would like to participate. *

For More Information and to Register: contact Denise Powers at Cancer Navigators (706) 509-5040

Thank You, 2023 Donors!

We are grateful to our supporters who have remained dedicated to helping cancer patients in our community throughout 2023. Donations are fulfilling patients' greatest needs, helping patients overcome barriers to cancer care so they can receive life-saving treatment, and enhancing quality of life. Our supporters are giving gifts of joy, relief, and hope, and fulfilling Cancer Navigators' mission of ensuring no one journeys through cancer alone. We are so thankful!
